

Discussion Questions for Stealing Lincoln's Body by Thomas J. Craughwell

1. Did you like the book? Why or why not?
2. Did this book alter your opinion of any of the historical figures who appear in it? How?
3. Did you learn anything? If so, what information in the book was new to you? What was the one most interesting thing that you learned?
4. Did any parts of the book surprise you? If so, what?
5. Did you find the author's narrative style effective? Is the book objective, or do you think the author has an agenda?
6. How vividly did the author re-create the historical time? What drew you in? Was anything too dry or unnecessarily detailed?
7. Has anyone had experiences relevant to this book that you'd like to share?
8. Are there questions you would like to ask?