

Discussion Questions for Citizens of London by Lynne Olson

1. Did you like the book? If yes, why? If no, why not?
2. How much did you know about the relations between the United States and England during the time period before reading the book? Did you learn anything new?
3. How did you find the pace of the book? Did the author's method of unfolding the events make you feel you were living through the era?
4. What satisfaction can be derived from a nonfiction book like Citizens of London that cannot be found in novels?
5. Does anyone have a personal story connected to the events or people in the book?
6. Did the book trigger any emotions while you were reading it?
7. Does this book relate in any way to the current state of the world, international relations, the press, or celebrities?
8. Do you have unanswered questions? If the author were here, what would you ask her?
9. Are there any additional comments you would like to share?